

TROUTVILLE Tidbits

Volume 4, Issue 12

December 2011

EAT, SHOP AND BE MERRY

Troutville Town Hall
Saturday, December 17, 2011
3:00pm – 7:00pm

It's a Farmers Christmas Market

This is a one-day only opportunity to purchase unique gifts for the holidays. You will find everything from black walnuts to handcrafted jewelry, cards, ornaments, wreaths and more! And Together For Troutville, Inc. will be selling their local products as well...DON'T MISS IT!!!

You can also purchase a Lasagna Dinner ($8.00 a plate, includes salad and bread) for Eat In or Take Out by Homestyle Personal Chef. To pre-order a meal, call 966-2164 or email homestyle@ntelos.net.

CALLING ALL LADIES!!!

Bring your sisters / mothers / girlfriends...to a special JEWELRY OPEN HOUSE at the Pomegranate Restaurant on Saturday, December 3rd, 5:00-7:00pm.

Featuring two local artists - Kim Crowder-Austin and Pam Stalnaker – who specialize in vintage and customized, handmade jewelry. Each one-of-a-kind piece is perfect for gift giving! Be inspired by these two women who can make your accessories express your own story. Select from mixed metals, gemstones, leather, fabric, shells, fossils, glass, beads or order custom work for yourself or your loved ones.

Kim and Pam are ready to help you add to your own collections, or find the thing you have been searching for that special female friend or relative.

Don't miss it! Come to nibble, sip and browse, and help us support local talent.

SNOWFLAKES ARE STILL AVAILABLE

If you would like to place a snowflake on the Town Community Christmas Tree in honor or memory of a loved one, please call 819-6335 or stop by the Troutville Town Hall.

CHRISTMAS GIFT SUGGESTIONS:

"To your enemy, forgiveness. To an opponent, tolerance. To a friend, your heart. To a customer, service. To all, charity. To every child, a good example. To yourself, respect."

~Oren Arnold~

SPONSORED BY THRIFTWAY FOODS